This action approves the following to become effective immediately:

Page 136, COURSE INFORMATION:

Prerequisites for courses are printed immediately following the course description. Prerequisites are predicated upon the assumption Students must be aware that the listed prerequisite may itself have one or more prerequisites. It is the student's responsibility to consult the catalog course descriptions to be sure that all prerequisites in a series have been met. A student may not enroll in a course serving as a prerequisite for another course he or she has already completed. Exception: This rule will be waived for students who do not earn grades of C or better in English 1001C, English 1002C, and/or Speech Communication 1310C or their equivalents. A student may not enroll in a lower level course which substantially duplicates a higher level course already completed. Should a student violate this prescription, he/she may not receive credit for the course toward graduation.

The meeting adjourned at 2:15 p.m.

Karen Johnson, Recording Secretary.
